There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and / or other support services.

Lilavati Lalji Dayal Night College of Commerce has yet to formally establish an Alumni Association.

However, a dedicated group of alumni remains actively involved with the institution, significantly contributing to its development through financial support and other valuable services.

Alumni Committee: Our alumni maintain close connections with both teachers and current students, fostering a strong sense of community and continuity.

Additional Support: This committed group has organized impactful events covering a range of important topics, including financial literacy, motivational programs, competitive exam preparation, anti-ragging initiatives, sexual harassment awareness, and women's empowerment.

These efforts have played a crucial role in enriching the educational experience and promoting a safe and inclusive environment on campus.

Their ongoing dedication exemplifies the strong bond between alumni and their alma mater, highlighting the importance of alumni involvement in the continued success and growth of the college.
