

CRITERIA 3 – EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

LLDNCC is very keen on Research because educational research improves teaching as well as learning methods and helps students in applying their knowledge to real world situations.

HEI received Rs. 05 lakhs as research grant from NGOs. Hulahul Foundation, Mumbai - 18 (Rs. 5 lakhs) is benefactor – angel for HEI. Research grants are distributed to teacher researchers on research projects.

Institute developed an ecosystem for creation and transfer of knowledge. Its results were – Rs. 05 lakh was spent on research grant, 01 National Conferences, 60 research paper publications, IPR sessions, RM sessions, entrepreneurship trainings which are noteworthy.

Experienced teachers lead research projects and prepared 20 research papers based on advancements in the commerce field. 40 students participated in this process also. Research papers were published in ISSN index journal. After the international peer team reviewed the journals, the impact factor was more than six.

Research teachers wrote 40 Research papers presented in National Conference based on research topics, with fact findings which were bound in form of BOOKS with ISSN index and published for the National Conference.

HEI is dedicated to fostering societal and community development by actively sensitizing students with about 49 main extension activities with HEI NGOs. College received its recognition for the extension activities from Government / Non-government bodies through 02 awards.

HEI is involved in more than 36 outreach and extension activities showing its commitment towards the society by the LLDNCC family.

HEI has also signed 23 MOUs. It has 14 collaborations with institutes, 01 MOU with NGO, and 08 collaborations with employers. In the assessment period (2018 – 2023), HEI has conducted educational, admin, social, cultural, sports, research activities along with each of them. It showcased HEI's commitment towards exchange of ideas, thoughts, knowledge for improvement.